1. JOB PURPOSE

The Chaplain as a member of the multidisciplinary team will be responsible, in collaboration with the team for providing the highest possible standard of Chaplaincy services to patients and their families, from referral to discharge/death, including bereavement support to families. The service provided will be consistent with the mission statement, ethos and values of St. Francis Hospice Dublin.

2. ACCOUNTABILITY

The position reports to the Lead Chaplain or other designated person in all matters relating to the job.

3. KEY DIMENSIONS

- Direct reporting to the Lead Chaplain.
- Accountability to the Director of Nursing / Assistant Director of Nursing or other designated representative.
- Key relationships that will influence the success of the role: Multidisciplinary Team Members.

4. OPERATING ENVIRONMENT

Contractual hours: 39 hours per week – 1 WTE.

Hours of Work:

Detailed starting and finishing times, which may vary in accordance with Hospice needs will be notified by your Line Manager. There will be times when you will be required to work outside of office hours.

Location:

The post holder will be working in both locations Raheny and Blanchardstown depending on the needs of the service.

As St. Francis Hospice Dublin is an expanding service the demands for services can change and it will be necessary to meet these changes through the organisation. In such circumstances it may be necessary to review the work location for this post and, on behalf of the Board of Directors, the Leadership Team reserves the right to change the terms and conditions as necessary. However, notification will be given of any such changes.

Job Rotation: The role of Chaplain will necessitate rotating through the service areas within the Hospice i.e. Hospice Day Care, Community Palliative Care, Outpatients Department and the Inpatient Unit. The Head of Chaplaincy / Director of Nursing / Assistant Director of Nursing manages and directs the rotation.

Garda Vetting: The successful candidate will be required to satisfactorily complete the Garda Vetting process prior to a formal job offer being made.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Principles of Palliative Care

As a Chaplain, you should:

- Recognise that chaplaincy care is an essential element of holistic care for the person with life-limiting condition and their family.
- Understand the nature of spirituality and recognise that everyone has a spiritual dimension and that for many people this may have a religious component.
- Assist the person with a life-limiting condition to discern their spiritual needs and create a safe space where they can name and address them.
- Recognise that the opportunity for human development; physical, emotional and spiritual, is an essential component of palliative care.
- Understand and appreciate that spiritual and emotional pain often results from a loss of meaning and unmet spiritual needs.
- Engage pastorally with persons who are experiencing spiritual distress and pain.
- Understand and appreciate that in some cases suffering can be seen as part of the normal, process of living with the profound challenges of having a progressive illness, functional disability, and awareness of impending death.
- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the main world faiths, philosophies, beliefs, practices, cultures and traditions around life, illness, dying and death.

- Offer support and encouragement to the multidisciplinary team in order to promote wellbeing and self-care.

Communication

As a Chaplain, you should:

- Recognise and appreciate that the quality of pastoral presence is an essential component of spiritual care.
- In the course of pastoral ministry be fully attentive to the individual with a life-limiting condition and demonstrate the ability to connect and empathise with them
- Demonstrate sensitivity in pastoral conversations with patients, families and significant others.
- Understand that the communication of information which changes the person's understanding of their situation and/or influences their decision-making or planning is an on-going process and not a single event.
- Provide person-centred, family-focused chaplaincy care that understands and respects diversity in all its dimensions.
- Use pastoral interventions and engage in pastoral conversations, which are age appropriate.
- Apply best practice in spiritual assessment and documentation to help determine and communicate interdisciplinary plans of care.
- Recognise, understand and be sensitive to the significant changes in the person's condition when moving toward end of life and facilitate the individual, and their family to consider options for spiritual care and support.
- Have the skill and capacity to engage respectfully and sensitively with patients around their beliefs, fears, hopes and uncertainties regarding death and after life.
- Whilst respecting the individual's beliefs and wishes, ensure that spiritual and/or religious rituals and/or sacraments for end of life, are available.
- Through spiritual accompaniment, help the individual with a life-limiting condition to make their final journey with dignity, peace and compassion, while also providing support to their family
- Demonstrate the ability to apply knowledge of the key physical, psychological and social principles in palliative care in order to communicate effectively with the multidisciplinary team.
- Understand and practice appropriate principles of confidentiality in relation to matters of a private and sensitive nature.

Optimising Comfort and Quality of Life

As a Chaplain, you should:

- Be able to help the person living with a life-limiting condition to feel assured that chaplains are capable of accompanying persons of all faith traditions, persons who profess no faith, persons whose lives are guided by a particular life philosophy
- Demonstrate an ability to assist members of the multidisciplinary team to understand the nature and importance of addressing the spiritual and religious needs of the individual and how these may impact on wellbeing
- Demonstrate an ability to assess the spiritual/religious needs of the person with a life-limiting condition and share as appropriate with the multidisciplinary team
- At the request of the individual with a life-limiting condition or their family liaise with the individual's parish clergy, faith group, spiritual companions/leaders and/or other community religious/spiritual and cultural resources.
- Work as a member of the multidisciplinary team when considering the care and treatment options for the person with a life-limiting condition with due regard to the person's wishes.

Care Planning and Collaborative Practice

As a Chaplain, you should:

- Demonstrate an ability to assess, plan and communicate the spiritual needs of the patient to the multidisciplinary team
- Be aware and respect professional boundaries when offering and providing spiritual care to patients and when interacting with other members of the multidisciplinary team
- Demonstrate an ability to assess the need to seek professional consultation regarding the effectiveness of pastoral care and the appropriateness of referral to another professional care provider
- Document appropriate referrals following spiritual assessment (e.g. referral to the patient's own faith representative if requested)
- Demonstrate an ability for effective engagement in multidisciplinary team meetings, highlighting and addressing spiritual issues and suggesting appropriate responses to identified spiritual need
- Recognise that the person with a life-limiting condition may lose capacity to make decisions towards end-of-life.
- Work collaboratively with the person with a life-limiting condition, their family and other professionals, including attending family meetings, team meetings, mediating discussions and planning for future care.
- Recognise that the person with a life-limiting condition may lose capacity to make decisions towards end-of-life.
- Be able to quantify the benefits and measurable outcomes of pastoral care interventions through reflecting on expressed patient and family satisfaction
- Provide staff support and guidance around spiritual care issues by sharing professional knowledge and expertise regarding spiritual/religious issues in palliative care and at end of life, with the multidisciplinary team

Loss, Grief and Bereavement

As a Chaplain, you should:

- Be able to articulate important spiritual, existential and emotional concepts for patients, families and significant others.
- Work in partnership with parents, guardians and other family members in order to prepare and support children and vulnerable adults for the loss of loved ones.
- Be able to provide appropriate spiritual care and emotional support to grieving persons of diverse cultural and religious traditions, and to persons with no affiliation to a faith tradition
- Be able to plan and lead appropriate rituals, suitable for the time of dying or after death, which offer hope and comfort to persons from a diversity of cultural and faith traditions, and to persons who represent a diversity of world views.
- Be able to plan and lead services suitable for specific faith traditions, and also ecumenical and interfaith services
- Demonstrate an ability to work in partnership with the patient's faith group/leaders and/or other community religious/spiritual and cultural resources to ensure that all sacramental, religious and faith based rituals are met in a timely and appropriate manner.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the theories of loss, grief and bereavement.
- Be culturally aware of nuances regarding pain, suffering, loss, complicated and anticipatory grief, and life review.

Professional and Ethical Practice in the Context of Palliative Care

As a Chaplain, you should:

- Respect and uphold the dignity of the person who is receiving palliative or end-of- life care.
- Respect and support the person with a life-limiting condition and their family to be treated with dignity throughout the course of illness, during the dying process, and after death.

- Identify how one's feelings, attitudes, values and assumptions impact on pastoral ministry with the person with a life-limiting condition and their family.
- To recognise and articulate challenging areas of ethical sensitivity and awareness in the hospice and palliative care arena.
- Demonstrate maintaining one's integrity and authenticity in professional practice during the process of assisting others in moral and ethical care decisions, within a diverse and transitioning health care system and patient population.
- Engage in reflective practice to promote greater self- awareness and ability to critically evaluate one's own practice within end of life care.
- Utilise peer supervision to ensure best practice in end of life care and to meet organisational and professional requirements.
- Participate in meetings around ethical decision-making for patients and families honouring diverse ethnic, cultural, religious/faith tradition and philosophical worldviews.
